

Do you teach in a social work program?

Researchers at the University of Pittsburgh are conducting a research project on sexual health curricula within social work programs. The goal of this study is to better understand how sexual health content is integrated into social work education.

You may qualify if you:

Teach part-time/full-time at a school/department of social work.

Participation involves:

Completing an anonymous online survey about sexual health content in your teaching and will take no more than 20 minutes.

Participants with a completed survey will be given a random chance of being chosen to receive complimentary CSWE APM 2021 registration.
