

Presented by Binghamton University's Department of Social Work:

SOCIAL WORK AS IT PERTAINS TO CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY & MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING

FEATURING MERRIT HARTBLAY

Therapist, Social Worker and Chemical Dependency Counselor

Topics will include:

1. Cognitive Behavior Therapy.
2. Motivational Interviewing -- Meeting the clients where they are.
3. Understanding Cultural Competency.
4. Erasing the Stigma of Addiction and Mental Health.
5. False Advertising of TV Ads for Depression Medications.
6. Working With Families -- Understanding that addiction is a family disease.
7. Helping Clients Develop Healthy Boundaries.
8. The Use and Power of Positive Affirmations.
9. The Fentanyl Crisis.

3 SOCIAL WORK LIVE CE CONTACT HOURS AVAILABLE!

APRIL 27, 2022 AT 1:00-4:00 PM

Online via Zoom!

REGISTER AT: HTTPS://BIT.LY/MHARTBLAY-ARP2022

