

FLORIDA INSTITUTE FOR CHILD WELFARE

Florida Institute for Child Welfare Director Search Under Way

The Director of The Florida Institute for Child Welfare will oversee an annual $11 million budget. The Institute has grown and expanded greatly within the past 18 months, and the Director will be managing a growing organization and new legislative mandates that focus on enhancing the child welfare workforce from classroom to case work to competent leadership.

The role requires critical thinking, advanced communication skills, flexibility, good judgment and experience working in the policy arena. This position will entail translating research findings into program, training, and policy recommendations. The Director will create and maintain collaborative working relationships with legislative partners, the Department of Children and Families, and community-based care lead organizations.

An ideal candidate will be well acquainted with the child welfare system nationally and the uniqueness of the system in Florida. The candidate should have a keen awareness of the political landscape and the issues surrounding child welfare, both locally and nationally. The ability to carry out a vision while exercising political agility will be essential to this role. Outstanding candidates will bring a passion for the organization's mission, and an innovative and collaborative leadership style.

The Director position is now available on the Florida State University Career Board. Applications will be accepted and reviewed as they are received until the position is filled. Please share this opportunity with your colleagues.
